

2012 ZILLGITT LEADERSHIP INSTITUTE

The Robert M. Zillgitt Leadership Institute is a program of specialized leadership training and experiential learning dedicated to creating stronger members and a greater Fraternity. Funding is made available through the Phi Sigma Kappa Foundation from a generous bequest of the estate of the late Robert M. Zillgitt, a member of the Court of Honor and former Foundation Trustee. Brother Zillgitt was a champion of developing chapter leaders.

The 2012 Leadership Institute will be held Wednesday, August 8th beginning at 5:00pm through Saturday, August 11th. The Institute is held in conjunction with the Shonk Leadership School in Indianapolis, IN. All accepted applicants will have their registration fee, travel, and hotel for Wednesday evening covered.

CRITERIA FOR CANDIDACY

- Must have at least one (1) academic year remaining on your undergraduate program (graduation at the earliest of spring 2013)
- Previous or current leadership experience is preferred (chapter executive board, IFC, student government, other campus club or organization leadership experience)
- Previous attendance at a Grand Chapter convention, leadership school, regional conclave, or other leadership training conference or opportunity is required
- One candidate per chapter or colony will be selected, although chapters, colonies, and Grand Chapter volunteer officers or staff are encouraged to nominate more than one candidate from a chapter/colony
- Must show a track record of good, consistent academic performance
- Must be able to arrive in time for the entire Zillgitt Leadership Institute and must stay through the conclusion of the Shonk Leadership School
