2011 Heinz Eifel Riesling

90 - pts. – Wine Spectator

Winemaker's Notes:

Heinz Eifel Riesling Spatlese is made from late-harvested Riesling grapes in the middle Mosel Valley of Germany. These grapes hang into late Autumn and ripen such that they produce a rich, full-bodied white wine. This is an elegant Riesling that offers a palate of different stone and tree fruit notes such as peach and apricot. It is luscious and full-bodied with a long and fresh finish.

An ideal dinner Riesling and also can be enjoyed with riper, aged cheeses and spicy cuisine due to its enhanced complexity.

Alcohol by Volume: 7.5%

Critical Acclaim:

"Offers interesting aromas and flavors of quince paste, with tarte Tatin and peach cobbler notes that are supported by juicy acidity. Hints of brine give this added support, with a ripe, lemon-lime finish. Drink now through 2032."
